

MARTINE PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO TAFT

New Jersey Senator, at G. U. Phi Alpha Dinner, Praises Former President.

"One of the most companionable, congenial, and lovely mortals that God's sun ever shone upon." This was the characterization of former President Taft given by Senator Martine, of New Jersey, before the dinner of Taft Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity of Georgetown University, at the Raleigh. The former President was not there to hear this tribute, but he sent a letter of regret to be read by Justice Daniel Thew Wright, of the District Supreme Court.

The New Jersey Senator, although of opposite political faith from Taft, declared that as a man he could not help admiring and liking him.

Patriotism and fellowship were among the topics of the evening. Senator Martine declared a United States Senator is in a higher sense the representative of the whole country, rather than of a single Commonwealth, and he said a Senator should put aside minor considerations for the welfare of the whole nation.

Other speakers were Prof. Charles E. Roach and Edmund Brady, of the law faculty of Georgetown University; William S. Culbertson, a member of the fraternity at Yale and now a member of the Georgetown faculty; F. B. Ochsenschlaeger, G. U. '12; Chapin B. Bowman, chairman of the banquet committee; William A. Yates, G. U. '12; Capt. J. F. Oyer, U. S. M. C., assistant judge advocate general of the navy; G. C. Rorke, G. U. '14; L. L. Oliver, of the University of Virginia; and T. M. Murn.

Conductor Killed by Engine Buried Tuesday

Funeral services for the late John P. Grove, of 697 L street southeast, the Pennsylvania conductor who was killed in the Wilmington, Del., yards yesterday, will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Paul R. Hickok, pastor of Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment will be made in Loudon Park Cemetery, Baltimore. The body was brought to Washington today by a committee from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Mr. Grove was making up a train when he stepped in front of a switching engine. One leg was crushed and he suffered internal injuries that caused death half an hour later. He had been in the employ of the railway company thirty years. A widow, Mrs. Sally Grove, two daughters, Mrs. Murrell Gase, and Mrs. Aubrey Slade, and a son, John P. Grove, Jr., survive him.

ANACOSTIA FILES RUBBISH PROTEST

Citizens Appeal to Have Congress Order Waste Material Carted to Incinerator Instead of Being Dumped on River Flats—Children's Day in Churches.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ANACOSTIA, D. C., JUNE 8.—If the views of the Anacostia Citizens' Association are considered favorably, tons of material now carted to the scene of the reclamation of the Anacostia flats at the entrance to the suburb and dumped there, will be taken elsewhere and burned. The clean city committee asserts that the littering of the streets with this material is Anacostia's gravest problem from the standpoint of health and sanitation.

It is pointed out that the refuse sent to the river front is picked over by truant boys of the place, and it is urged that the wagons be driven directly to the incinerating plant, near Benning, where the material may be burned. The Commissioners have the matter under advisement.

Three churches will hold children's day exercises this evening.

The Anacostia M. E. Church will present an elaborate program at 8 o'clock, and the Congress Heights M. E. Church will have its celebration at the same hour. The East Washington Heights Baptist Church will have a children's program instead of the regular evening service.

The Baptist church in Anacostia will celebrate children's day next Sunday evening. The Presbyterian church will have its program on Sunday evening, June 23.

The committee sent to the Capitol with a petition bearing 500 names urging the early improvement of Pennsylvania avenue between Branch avenue and Bowen road was encouraged to believe that an appropriation for the work will be made. Nearly all the signatures are those of Maryland people, who use the highway mentioned in coming to and leaving the city.

Frank O. Smith, of the Maryland delegation, took charge of the petition, and each member of the delegation signed it. The committee members were C. L. Jenkins, president of the Sutherland Citizens' Association; Dr. C. H. Wells; O. T. Humphrey; R. Leapley; John Crowder; Walter Owens; R. F. Bradbury; E. H. Kimble; E. F. Hazleton; and P. W. Lewis.

Logan Park was illuminated last night for the first time by the new arc lights. Ten lights have been erected. A park policeman has been assigned to it.

Col. and Mrs. A. B. Frisbie, of Thirteenth street, left today to join their daughter, Miss Florence Frisbie, at Colonial Beach, Va., where they will remain one month.

Mr. and Mrs. Evander French, of Nichols avenue, have gone to Zanesville, Ohio, to visit Walter French, their son, who lives there with his family and whose property was damaged in the recent floods.

Miss Emma Marie C. Bender, Eastern High School girl and graduate of Peabody Institute of Music, Baltimore, who went to Birmingham, Ala., to become a teacher of music in the Allen Seminary, is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Bender, of Congress Heights, on her vacation. She has been promoted to entire charge of the music department of the seminary.

Miss Martha Hall, of St. Elizabeth's clerical staff, has gone to her home in Philadelphia, Pa., for a vacation.

Dr. Orlando J. Poyer, member of St. Elizabeth's medical staff, has resigned his position to enter the service of another institution.

Raymond Northrup, of Rochester, N. Y., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Miller, of Q street, where a party was given in his honor last evening. Those who rendered musical numbers were Mrs. H. W. Roushley and Mrs. N. O. Bennett. After an extended visit to New York city Mr. Northrup will return to Rochester.

Attracted to the spot by groans, Policeman A. C. Ogle found Mary Pagan, sixty years old, in a helpless condition last night about 8:30 o'clock in Pennsylvania avenue, near Railroad avenue. She was lying on the ground, suffering from exposure. The policeman took her to the Washington Asylum Hospital, where it was learned she had been discharged from treatment one month ago.

WEYAUWEGE, Wis., June 8.—Screaming defiance to the flames, the leaped and curled from the windows of the main wing of the hospital, a score of mad men led to safety half a hundred of their fellow maniacs, when fire attacked the Waupaca County Hospital for the Insane.

When the fire was discovered, nurses and attendants at once turned in the alarm and began the rescue of the patients, but the fire had gained great headway. As a last resort, the trustees of the men's dormitories were appealed to. Firemen had all they could do to confine the flames to the main wing, and the maniacs went to work to rescue their afflicted brethren.

They fought their way through the stifling smoke to the rooms of the insane patients. Some of the inmates were hard to handle, but the madmen conquered, and when the roof of the main wing caved in, every patient was safely housed and under guard in the town hall.

The District of Columbia follows the thirteen colonies, bearing gifts of "The Law." Then the rest of the States by group bearing with them characteristic gifts. For the South will come such presents as cotton, tobacco, and sugarcane. Each of these, it is announced, "will be personified by a graceful dancing girl and boys in garb symbolizing their character. The hawny sons of the Middle West will bring wheat and corn in the form of girls dressed in sheaves

UNCLE SAM'S PARTY WILL BE ELABORATE

Work Begins This Week on Casting and Rehearsing Great Historic Spectacle.

Elaborate pomp and ceremony will mark the varicolored pageant to be given the afternoon of July 4 in the Ellipse, known as Uncle Sam's 137th birthday party. Work begins this week on casting and rehearsing this great pantomime spectacle in which there will be 150 principal figures and many hundreds others taking part, particularly in the historic procession preceding the pantomime. Members of the Washington Readers' Club, an organization affiliated with the Drama League, will have many of the principal roles in the birthday party.

"Uncle Sam" will receive his guests at 5 p. m. after the pageant has completed its showy procession the length of the mall ending up at the Washington Monument, where by music, flowers and ceremonial, tribute will be paid the memory of the first President.

From the Monument a pergola, with columns widely spaced, will lead to the north, and at the further end this pergola will sit the host.

States First.

To him will come first the States, children of the nation, then the Territories considered adopted children and after these "the presiding gentlemen of the age, peace, and her attendants, property and progress. Finally the grandchildren, the small George Washingtons, the little Dolly Madisons and the others who have made up the historic procession, will arrive as guests."

The States are to be welcomed with much ceremony. Each will do honor to the occasion by bringing its best gifts, it being no birthday party at all if the guests do not bring presents, according to the authors of the pageant.

Miss Columbia will come with her gifts, it being no birthday party at all if the guests do not bring presents, according to the authors of the pageant.

Then the Northwest States and after them the Far West. Then Alaska in totem pole head dress with a gift of furs, and finally the adopted children, Hawaii, the Philippines and Porto Rico.

The committee in charge of the pageant issued appeal for subscriptions today. The pageant will cost considerable money and prompt response is needed. It was announced today that D. J. Callahan, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will read the Declaration of Independence at the Continental Hall exercises.

Elects Woman Trustee; Now Town Enjoys Boom

After having "stood pat" for forty years, the summer colony at Washington Grove, Md., most of whom live in the Capital, has adopted the flag of Progressivism and elected a woman, Mrs. Amelia H. Huntley, to the board of trustees. The result is that a new sewerage system is being planned, an electric street lighting plant is to be installed and the hotel in the center of the old part of the Grove is to be rebuilt.

Mrs. Huntley was one of three trustees elected on the Progressive ticket, the others being L. Campling Williams, and Frank R. Rynek. The holdover members are J. W. Duval, B. H. Brockway, L. F. Hunt, S. H. Walker, R. H. Walker, and John T. Meany.

District Society May Join With Federation

The Pennsylvania society of the District may join the Federation of State Associations, but no action will be taken until fall as the last meeting of the spring season has been held.

On the program of this gathering were: Middleton Smith, Mrs. J. D. Roberts, Misses Mabel Louise Benzler, Bessie Tegeler, Ada Boteler, Lenore Baker, Gertrude Horst, Emma Sirrine and Laura Gray, and Mrs. W. E. Andrews, Thomas Hopwood and Prof. William J. Oates' Orchestra, John S. Arnold, first vice president of the society, and Joseph P. Bixler.

Will Probe Alleged Attempt at Bribery

BOSTON, June 8.—The most remarkable proceeding in the history of Massachusetts jurisprudence will begin Wednesday, when Judge John C. Crosby will open a public hearing to investigate the alleged attempted bribery of Morris Shuman, a juror in the Wood-Atteaux-Collins trial.

The biggest development in the bribery scandal was the admission yesterday by Attorney Hurlbut, counsel for President William M. Wood, the millionaire head of the American Woolen Company, that a man came to him and offered to "fix" the jury.

GIBBONS TO PRESIDE AT SCHOOL EXERCISES

Commencement Ceremonies at Immaculate Seminary Will Be Completed Tuesday.

Commencement ceremonies at Immaculate Seminary will come to an end Tuesday with the graduating exercises, when His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons will conduct the exercises. The past week has been filled with entertainment features, starting with a tea to the graduating class and followed by musicals, recitals, literary entertainments, distribution day, closing exercises in the primary department, class rehearsals, and alumni day.

The members of the class of 1913 are Misses Eleanor Brophy and Rebecca Stoness, of Roanoke, Va.; Miriam Harding, of Berkeley, Cal.; Lillian Kennedy, of Scotland, Va.; Francis O'Brien, of Portland, Ore.; Margaret Stoinman, Ruth Peak, and Ethel Schaefer, of Washington.

The honors in music are to be awarded to Misses Eleanor Brophy and Miriam Harding; the honors in the classical courses will go to Misses Lillian Kennedy and Rebecca Stoness, and Miss A. Hogan, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, will receive a medal for completing the two years' special "post" course.

Miss Elizabeth Freeman, a Washington girl, will receive the medal in art. She has completed the course, and has a special art exhibit which will be open to the public until June 10. Other students also have art exhibits, all of which will be open until the graduation exercises. Among the "posts" are Misses Mabel O'Brien, of Portland, Ore.; Ruth Cavannah, of An Arbor, Mich.; and Lillian Donnelly, of Bay City, Mich.

Czar Gives Turk $250,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 8.—It has been learned here that the Czar paid Essad Pasha, Turkish commander of Scutari, $250,000 to induce the latter to surrender the fort of Scutari to King Nicholas of Montenegro in order that the Montenegrin monarch might retain the confidence of his people.

Lobster in Mail Bag Startles Postoffice

MEREDITH, N. H., June 8.—A live lobster on its way from Boston refused to travel by parcel post, and broke out of its package at the Meredith post-office. It took Postmaster Estes and his clerks nearly half an hour to get the four-pound crustacean back into the parcel post. The lobster was consigned to Dr. George Sanborn.

Women Elders Are Barred by Yankee Town

LEOMINSTER, Mass., June 8.—The Leominster selectmen have refused permits to John Aagard and C. Ray Mahoney, two Mormon elders, who petitioned to be allowed to preach in the village here. The disappearance of several girls during the past month is claimed to be the reason for the action.
